

Accomplishment Corner

Saeideh registered to vote and voted in the General Election.

Susan passed her citizenship test and took her oath.

Grace is working on writing "a collection of memories" from her childhood in Poland to pass down to her daughter.

Amy is improving her conversation skills.

Nora is improving her writing skills.

Cristina has improved her language skills by giving explanations, descriptions and answers and has jumped a level when she was tested!

Juan is expanding his vocabulary and comprehension.

Wendy is working on correcting her grammar.

Sarah has made improvements in writing structure as well as grammar and vocabulary.

Enverlyn is reading books to her children and practicing dialogues for their teachers.

Betty passed her citizenship test.

Rogelio is enjoying reading "American Victory".

Roseangela is practicing pronunciation.

Alma is progressing w grammar and conversation.

Jerry is reading more books.

Dora continues to improve her reading, writing and math skills.

Margarita obtained a new job and is increasing her fluency in English with her co-workers.

Gabriela is improving her pronunciation skills.

Evelia is working on her listening and speaking skills w other employees.

Maria is practicing conversations in English.

Tina is improving all language skills.

Thank You For Giving Back!

Many thanks to students

Jerry

Robert

Ferdinand

and Rosemary

For inspiring the incoming volunteers at the Orientation session at Sparta United Methodist Church in September.

Bea Kota, Betty Fra, Carol Corbett

Betty Fra had a party for her women friends to celebrate her US citizenship. She became official on October 18. What a great day for her and her tutors Bea and Carol. Congratulations on the great work ladies!

Students: Share with us!
News! Hobbies! Recipes! Accomplishments!
Announcements!

Students love to read about things that matter to other Students.

Make Student Talk your Newsletter - Share!
You can share your new writing skills with the Student Talk Newsletter!

We love to read about what you've done, what you enjoy or any comments you have.

If you want to put your words in print, just tell your Literacy Tutor or email into literacyforyou@gmail.com